

GET PLASTERED WITH ETEC THIS AUTUMN!

ETEC Development Trust is running a series of do-it-yourself courses for people; in Sunderland this autumn.

The first course – Using Power Tools – starts on 6 October and runs on Tuesdays between 9.30am and 12.15pm.

Painting: the Roller Brush or Spray? starts on 8 October and runs from 10am to 12.45pm on Thursdays.

How to get Plastered! starts on 10 November. It runs from 9.30am to 12.15pm on Tuesdays.

All courses last four weeks and take place at ETEC, 90 Coronation Street, Sunderland. SR1 2HE.

Further courses on using a hammer, fitting a shelf properly and home improvement are planned for later in the autumn term.

Courses are run by ETEC and funded by Sunderland City Council.

Courses cost £1.80 per hour but are free to people on certain benefits. Classes are half price to the over-60s.

For further information, contact Jim Nesbitt 0191 5656414 or jim.nesbitt@etec.gov.uk.

For further information on this press release, please contact Judith Dunn, Business Development Co-ordinator, on (0191) 565 6414.

ETEC is a development trust, based in Hendon and the East End, of Sunderland.

It specialises in offering high quality training and development to a wide range of clients across a number of programmes and projects.